

MEMORIES OF SPECIAL PEOPLE

“Maxine Jones”

Written by Mary Peters

There are people we meet who are so inherently good that we think of them as saintly. One of our saints who passed away during the past year is Maxine Jones. Whenever she greeted anyone it was always with warmth and love. I have had the privilege of knowing her for so many years through the Church and volunteer organizations and so have experienced that special treatment many times.

When I needed to have a procedure at Memorial Hospital and had a certain amount of anxiety regarding it, there was Maxine in her volunteer assignment ready to escort me to my room chatting along the way, putting my mind at ease.

Her faith in the Lord and her love of family and friends was so much a part of her. I will always remember her with love.
